GLENDALÉ, Oct. 5.—The Mesa commercial club has extended a cordial invitation to the Glendale district commercial club to be represented in the coming cotton carnival. This year instead of a king the chief executive of the celebration will be a queen, to be nominated by anyone, there being nominees nominated from each town. Each candidate is to receive 25 complimentary votes when nominated, then the friends that care to aid in the campaign may clip votes from four valley newspapers.

The queen will preside at all the functions, ride in state in the parade and lead the grand march at the carnival ball. It is the request of the club that some one be nominated and the more the merrier, as Glendale should be represented. Already several prospective candidates have been talked of, and one in particular.

Go To Los Angeles
F. A. Wilcox will leave Glendale Wednesday for Los Angeles, where he will locate.

Building House
F. W. Eberle is building a home on his lot on North Fourth avenue across from the B. H. Yeager place.

Booklet Out
The premium list booklet issued by the fair commission has arrived at Glendale. There are only a limited number and those who are interested in the program and the number of prizes given will do well to come early and get one before they are all gone.

Returns From East
Louis Sands, who has extensive ranching interests in the Glendale district, has returned to the valley after a four months absence, spent in the east. His home is on the Manistee ranch.

Mother Visits
Mrs. Johnston, the mother of Mrs. A. G. Picher, is in Glendale for a visit having come over from Los Angeles the latter part of last week.

Back in the Bank
C. C. Brooks, cashier of the Glendale State Bank, returned Saturday night after a month's vacation which he took to recuperate after a very strenuous spring and summer in the bank.

Visitor
Miss Gertrude Wolf of Los Angeles and visiting friends in Phoenix spent the week end as the guest of Mrs. Picher.

ENLISTMENTS ARE HEAVY
WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—About one out of every five soldiers whose enlistments expired during September have reenlisted the army recruiting service reported tonight. A total of 14,431 men were accepted for service in September. The army strength now is 196,422.

HINDENBURG, WEARING WILHELM'S CROSSES, AND SON AT HORSE SHOW

BERLIN—Former Field Marshal von Hindenburg doesn't care whether there's an army or not—he still wears the uniform of the imperial forces and, furthermore, the mere fact that the kaiser isn't a kaiser any more doesn't prevent Von from wearing the pretty iron crosses and things Wilhelm gave him. This is the first picture ever taken of von Hindenburg and his son, Captain Hindenburg, together, and was made at a horse show in a German town.

RATTLERS TO OUST TAXICAB WHISTLES
LONDON—Police have put the ban of taxicab whistles so drivers are planning on rattlers, used during the war to imitate machine gun fire, to summon prospective customers.

IS FOR SLIPPER CURE FOR GIRLS
LONDON—Now comes the slipper as an excellent corrector for girls as well as boys. "The world would be a happier place if fathers used the slipper on their daughters as well as their sons," says Rev. T. H. Taylor.

TO BRIGHTEN RUGS
To brighten rugs, add a tea spoonful of turpentine to a pail of warm water. Dip a cloth into this solution, squeeze dry, and rub the rug vigorously.

FRONT! AND SIX BELLHOPS GO TO JAIL
LOUISVILLE, Ky.—"Front!" commanded Ellis Workman, U. S. deputy marshal in the lobby of the Louisville Old Inn Hotel. A bellboy answered, then another until six were there. All were arrested, charged with selling liquor.

TOMB FINISHED JUST IN TIME

PARIS—Madame Bonier, theatrical woman here, ordered her tomb built four years ago. Shortage of labor made the work slow and madame was afraid she'd die before the tomb was ready. She sent for her contractor recently to speed things up and he told her the tomb would be ready in three days. Three days later she was ready for the tomb.

TOO MUCH WOOL IN NORWAY AND SWEDEN

LONDON—Swedish newspapers report that Scandinavian countries are overstocked with woolen goods and are cancelling foreign orders. Also that most mills in Norway and Sweden are working only half-time.

MERCHANTS HAVE EGG TESTERS HANDY

LONDON—Provision merchants here are mounting large egg testers in front of their stalls so that customers may see for themselves that the eggs they buy are fresh.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The season ticket campaign was launched yesterday morning during the third period.

A number of tickets was given to each class, but they were in such a demand that shortly after the third period had taken up there was a long line waiting at Mr. Carpenter's office to get more tickets. Mr. Carpenter states that he has given out 2500 tickets so it appears that there will be plenty of financial backing for athletics this year.

The girls had an assembly yesterday morning to discuss what part they would play in the "night gown" parade which is to be held either Thursday or Friday night. The girls seem to want to be in this parade as well as the boys.

The sophomores held a class meeting yesterday afternoon after school. The purpose of the meeting was to boost the season ticket campaign. This year's sophomore class won the silver loving cup last year, and intend to repeat their victory. The sophomore orchestra played at the meeting, and it sure is a good orchestra. The sophomores think it can beat any other class orchestra in the school.

The freshmen held another meeting last night. They are getting to be real yellers by this time and will all be out at Eastlake park on Saturday to see the football game. Freshmen are asked to be in the auditorium this afternoon after school.

The Hi-Y meeting at the "Y" yesterday was a big success. The officers are as follows: James Shelly, president; Jerry McGaugh, first vice president; William Oglesby, second vice president; Sam Joy, third vice president; Baro Davis, fourth vice president; Karl Woolsey, secretary.

The alumni game is only four days off and the team is going through stiff workouts every night after school. The boys are going to have good support, as all loyal Coyotes are going to the game and yell till they can't yell again. We are going out this year and get the football championship of the southwest if we all only turn out and boost the team.

SWEARING A LUXURY.

YARMOUTH, Eng.—"Swearing's a luxury and must have its luxury tax," Judge Samuels told a prisoner in police court here. "Used to fine you $2.50 for swearing. It'll cost $5 now."

CARING FOR HAIR BRUSHES AND COMBS

When washing brushes and combs and brushes, add a little ammonia to the water and dry in the sun. The brush should be dried with the bristles down, so that the water will drain off. The brushes should be sterilized frequently with a solution of formalin, one teaspoon to the pint of water. This solution will not damage the brush or comb.

Cotton and the BANKS---

The banks of Phoenix and Salt River Valley have a right to be proud of the manner in which they have so far taken care of the credit requirements of the growers of cotton.

Loans exceeding EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been made for the direct benefit of the cotton industry by the banks of the county, and large amounts are being loaned every day for picking the crop.

The banks are in no manner responsible for the present tightness in money. It is a nation-wide condition—with a noticeable trend for the better in the eastern money centers.

The local banks are using every wise means to relieve the present situation. In this work, The Valley Bank is glad to share to the fullest possible extent.

Hare's Motors Appoints a Western Man Pacific Coast Manager

Recognizing the great and growing importance of the Pacific Coast market for automotive products and resolved to have its interests there in the hands of a Western man who will provide a thoroughly intelligent point of contact, Hare's Motors has appointed to direct the Company's operations in California, Oregon, Washington, Utah, Nevada, and Arizona.

Mr. C. R. Norton

Mr. Norton's wide knowledge of the industry has gained him numerous honors, culminating in 1918 in the position of General Distribution Manager of the Packard Motor Car Company. His many years of earlier business experience on the Coast assure our friends throughout that region of a territorial administration entirely sympathetic with their every need.

Mr. Norton's headquarters for the present will be at the Locomobile Company's Los Angeles Branch, Pico at Figueroa Street, Los Angeles.

The management of Hare's Motors puts the emphasis on men. A proper selection of human material comes before every other consideration in the ordering of the Company's affairs. It is a matter of the utmost gratification that for this great Western field of its operations—which promise to grow annually more extensive beyond the Great Divide and may even, in time, combine production with distribution—it is able to announce an appointment so thoroughly in keeping with its established principles.
